"WOMAN, do not weep!" This is the heart with which we are placed before the gaze and the sadness, before the pain of all the people with whom we come into contact, in the street, along our way, in our travels.

I MADE YOU FOR LIFE. "Woman, do not weep!" What an unimaginable thing it is that God—"God"—He who is making the whole world at this moment—seeing and listening to man, could say: "Man, do not weep!" "You, do not weep!" "Do not weep, because I did not make you for death, but for life! I put you in the world and placed you in a great company of people!"

A DESTINY THAT IS GOOD. There is a gaze and a heart that penetrates to your very marrow and loves you all the way to your destiny, a gaze and a heart that no one can deflect from His course, no one can render incapable of saying what He thinks and what He feels, no one can render powerless!

(From The life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, Milan 2002)

There is nothing that can block the certainty of a destiny that is mysterious and good!
